

RAINNews

---

How RAINN Created Awareness and Action in 2018

From partnering with national media to helping 270,000 survivors and their loved ones, RAINN is growing to meet a vital need.

LOOK BACK AT 2018

---

For Pete Church, Being There for Survivors is Most Important

“I believe in RAINN’s work because it maximizes the use of every donated dollar to help the most people,” says Pete.

GET TO KNOW PETE

---

Police Officer Christa Hayburn Shares Her Story of Sexual Assault

“When you speak with a survivor of sexual assault, imagine that they are a loved one who has gone through this. How would you want them to be treated?” says Christa.

READ HER STORY

Building Hope and Resiliency for Military Survivors

Online course helps survivors begin the recovery process.

FIND OUT HOW

RAINN is pleased to welcome
its newest Corporate Partner

Uber

Mashable

CNN

Moneyish

"One of the big evolutions we've seen is a greater belief that if you come forward and talk about what happened, you'll be believed."

- Scott Berkowitz

"Let's hope that the legacy of this case is that victims feel empowered to come forward, knowing that it can truly make a difference in bringing perpetrators to justice."

- Jodi Omear

"By educating the public about consent and prevention, strengthening the criminal justice system to bring more perpetrators to justice, we can end sexual violence."

- Scott Berkowitz

Copyright 2018. All Rights Reserved.