What is RAINN Day?

RAINN Day is an opportunity for college students to demonstrate to their peers that they are an ally in the fight against sexual violence by utilizing materials and information from RAINN, the nation's largest anti-sexual violence organization.

How? Each year, college students participate on campus and online by hosting events to educate peers, provide resources for survivors, and raise awareness on social media.

What Will Your RAINNDay Look Like?

1

RAINN-Hosted Events

RAINN will be holding several virtual events, featuring special guests and musical performances.

Campus Partners' Events

2

This is where you come in! With this toolkit, you can plan your own RAINN Day events tailored to your campus.

Social Media Challenge:

Spread awareness and take action against sexual violence with RAINN on social media.

Event Ideas for RAINN Day

Virtual study breaks

Host a virtual study break with a live stream of yoga, meditation, or other live performances.

Training exercises

Host a training event with one of our local affiliates on topics such as bystander intervention or how to respond when someone discloses to you.

Find an affiliate at centers.rainn.org.

Listening nights

Host a listening session for a book or podcast episode and host a discussion about it.

Discussion panels

Host a discussion panel with guests, such as campus administrators or student leaders, to share important information and resources.

You can also request a survivor to speak at your event at rainn.org/request-survivor.

Fundraising events

Host a fundraising event such as a virtual 5K, a bake sale, or a raffle.

You can also reach out to local businesses to partner with them or ask for donations.

Get creative!

We love seeing original ideas from our campus partners. Check rainn.org/RAINNDay for even more inspiration!

Film screenings

Host a film screening with a documentary such as The Hunting Ground or an episode of a show like Surviving R. Kelly or Unbelievable. Then follow the screening with a discussion or panel.

LOGISTICS

SAFETY

- Keep events COVID-19 safe and socially distanced. Follow all state and local guidelines for reducing risk.
- Emotional needs and wellbeing of audience-members should also be considered.
 - Advertise the National Sexual Assault Hotline and other resources.
 - Use content warnings.

VIRTUAL EVENTS

- Consider the platform that best suits your needs.
 - Zoom, Google Meet, Instagram or Facebook live, YouTube livestreaming, etc.
 - Look into any platform details or restrictions.
- You may need streaming equipment.
- To stream a film or TV show, you may need to purchase the content.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- For virtual events, do a practice run to make sure all equipment and Internet speeds are functional.
- Check any necessary permissions or permits with campus and local authorities for any in-person events.
- Will you need any volunteers? Hold an info session with volunteers to ensure there is a clear understanding of roles.
- Advertise your event well enough in advance and communicate the schedule of events clearly in promotional materials.
